COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The highway crew started work on the parking lot beside the new fire station and a small amount of work has been done on the parking lot behind the station. It might take a couple of weeks to get the parking lot ready to far because other work is being done at the same time. The town is obligated to level and tar the parking lot that fronts on Mill Hill. The land was conveyed to the town by Gould Academy with certain conditions. One of the conditions is that the town level and surface the extra lot. It is not a major project and it is to the benefit of the town to have the extra parking space.

The area between the street and the front doors of the fire station was hot topped last week. The work was done by Northern Paving Co. of Gorham, N. H. It is the same firm that did the sidewalk and street job in the front of the post office last year.

The amount of waste picked up during the first couple of days of the clean-up campaign has been very small. This is the first year that this type of project has been tried and I expected that it would start out rather slow. I believe we can all learn from this first try and in years to come we can attempt to have more successful projects. A couple of points have been suggested that seem worthwhile. One is to start the campaign two or three weeks earlier. Another is that special interest groups be encouraged to undertake special projects. I am sure that wider participation would ensure a more successful project. I would like to mention that some of the residents of the Northwest Bethel road got together and they picked up litter that was scattered along the edge of the road. I believe greater satisfaction will be realized when special projects are undertaken by neighborhood groups.

POLLS OPEN 'TILL 7

Readers of The Citizen who get their paper Thursday are reminded that the polls in S. A. D. 44 are open until 7 o'clock this Thursday evening for voting on the High School Bond Referendum Question.

Bethel voters are casting their ballots at the Fire Station.

SAD 44 DIRECTORS TO CERTIFY REFERENDUM VOTE AT MONDAY MEETING

The Directors of School Administrative District 44 have set May 24 as the date for a special meeting to certify results of the $1,050,000 school bond issue referendum being held today (May 19). The special meeting will be held at Crescent Park School, Bethel, at 7:30 p. m.

Although unofficial results are expected to be known this Thursday evening, votes of the five towns—Andover, Bethel, Greenwood, Newry, and Woodstock, will be counted and recorded by the town clerk. Within 24 hours each clerk is to forward the results to the directors who will tally the votes and certify the results.

In other business, the Directors, meeting at Crescent Park School Monday night, authorized expenditure up to $300 from Title I funds for speech therapy work this summer. They voted to send eighth grade pupils of Newry and Locke Mills to Crescent Park School for the 1966-67 school year.

Interviews are still continuing for a principal of the proposed district high school, and there are some other faculty positions to be filled. Contract bus drivers will be required for the coming year.

Mrs. Margaret Davis has been employed to do special reading work at the Locke Mills School this spring. The curriculum committee has recommended including an application for funds for remedial teaching outside the Bethel schools, in Title I program request for 1966-67.

Leslie Blackford requested for the building committee, the architect to working on "1 1/2 scale" drawings of the proposed school and compiling the design and development plans.

BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE PAPER DRIVE MAY 28

Scoutmaster Irving Cummings has announced that the local team of Boy Scouts are conducting a waste paper drive on Saturday, May 28. Old newspapers, waste paper, bags, ropes, etc. will be collected. Zoning Hearing, May 26

The Zoning Board of Appeals of the Town of Bethel will hold a public hearing on Thursday, May 26, at 6:30 p. m. to consider the petition of Frank Lowell to build on the former Jenkins property on Railroad Street, which he has recently purchased.

Plans submitted to the Board of Appeals include a lumber storage building, a combination warehouse and shop and store and office with parking facilities on the Railroad Street frontage. He also has petitioned the Board for a temporary shed 300 feet on the Tyler property opposite his present location on Summer St. This is to be used for cutting lumber for fabrication of roof trusses.

The Railroad Street property was originally zoned as farming and residential area but at a special Town Meeting on June 7, 1961, it was changed to a Commercial area as Mr. Jenkins anticipated selling the property to a chain grocery store and desired to use the land in the rear of the property for customer parking.

The Building Inspector turned down Mr. Lowell's application for building permits as the present zoning ordinance prohibits lumber yards in a commercial area.

GOOD TURN-OUT FOR FIRST TOWN TEAM WORKOUT

Bethel Town Team had a good turnout Tuesday night with 13 prospective ballplayers showing up for its first practice. Next practice will be Monday at 6:15 at the Crescent Park School.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Williamson are spending the month of May visiting three sons. Earl S. Williamson Jr., his wife and children are now in New York City and their daughter, Miss John S. George, is in New York City. George is a student at the University of New York.

RACKETS IN AIR TRAVEL. UNSAFE SHIPS ARE TRAPS FOR THE UNWARY TRAVELER

If somebody offers an airline tickets at 50% of its face value, think twice before you buy, warns Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine.

It's against the law to sell tickets at less than the published fare. Your cut-rate ticket may turn out to be on the reservation agent's blacklist of stolen numbers. This is a racket run by petty thieves or international crime syndicates. If you buy, your ticket is invalid and you unwittingly become a partner in the crime.

Another big trouble spot in travel, according to Changing Times is the fake charter flight, organized by con men who skirt or violate the law. They mislead honest travelers—sometimes defraud them.

Most air charter flights are legitimate, well-run by respectable organizations aboard respectable airlines. The Civil Aeronautics Board "affinity rules" on charters are excellent enough. Only a bona fide organization can charter a plane, not one specifically established to do so; participants must be members at least six months before the flight; the cost must be shared on a pro rata basis with no profit to the organization or any individual.

Students should be wary of any charter program advertised as "a formal academic study course abroad" with course "equivalent to" a half credit or for which "many schools will allow" a half credit. Teachers should guard against soliciting for these affairs in return for a free trip. A recent CAB ruling states clearly that "study group" charters are authorized only to year-round colleges and schools empowered to great degrees or diplomas.

Ocean cruises can be another trouble spot for the unwary traveler. Changing Times points out:

Ships advertised as "complete new" are likely to be reconditioned old-timers. Check with someone who has traveled on the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE AT BERLIN, N. H.

SATURDAY EVENING
 A public lecture coming to Berlin, New Hampshire, on May 21 will explore how prayer can bring harmony into relationships between people.

Herbert E. Rieke, C. S. D., an experienced Christian Science teacher and practitioner will explain in detail the Christian Science view of how man's relationship to God determines everything in life.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Berlin, N. H., is sponsoring the lecture, beginning at 8:00 p. m. in the City Hall Auditorium, Main Street, Berlin.

Mr. Rieke entered the Christian Science healing ministry almost immediately after graduation from Northwestern University. During World War II, he served as an Army Air Corps Chaplain in India, North Africa, and Italy, receiving a bronze star for distinguished service. A resident of Indianapolis, he is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

His lecture will be titled "Discovering Harmonious Relationships Through Christian Science." Admission is free and open to the public. Everyone is welcome.

Christian Science
 Christian Science churches this Sunday will present a Bible Lesson—Sermon on the fallacies of hypnotism and others of mental control and servitude.

Responsive Reading will include these verses from Ephesians: "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is."

The theme is explained in detail in selections to be read from the Christian Science textbook, including these: "In a world of sin and sensuality hastening to a greater development of power, it is wise especially to consider whether it is the human mind or the divine Mind which is influencing one. No person is benefited by yielding his mentality to any mental deception or malpractice. The truths of immortal Mind sustain man, and they annihilate the fallacies of mortal mind, whose dreamy and gaudy pretensions, like silly moths, singe their own wings and fall."

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

Faith is not merely praying
 Upon our knees at night;
 Faith is not merely straying
 Through darkness into light;

 Conditions may arise.

KEEP MAINE GREEN WEEK

Sumner L. Burgess, Chairman of the Keep Maine Green Committee and Manager, Timberlands and Forestry, Oxford Paper Co., urges all Maine citizens to support Gov. Reed's request for observance of Keep Maine Green Week, May 15-21.

"Maine is fortunate in having a great wealth of forest land," said Burgess. Some 17,170,000 acres of commercial forest land support the state's largest industry and make possible some of the finest outdoor recreation in this nation.

Everyone has a stake in keeping these acres green, he pointed out. "Forest fires that burn our woodlands provide no jobs, ruin our recreation areas and severely diminish our future supplies of needed forest products."

Keeping Maine Green is a continuous job, he emphasized. "Forest fires just don't happen. Nine out of ten can be traced to some act of human carelessness. Thus, with care we can make substantial improvements in our forest fire statistics."

"One carelessly dropped match, one unattended debris fire, or one thoughtlessly discarded cigarette could well be the cause of a destructive forest fire," Burgess said.

The Keep Maine Green chairman called attention to the Silver Anniversary of the American Tree Farm System being observed throughout the year in each of the contiguous states.

Acknowledged as the nation's most successful program of forest management on privately owned, tax-paying lands this year of 1966 gives us two favorable colors for our forest lands. Silver for the twenty-fifth anniversary of the American Tree Farm System, and Green for our green and growing forests, Burgess noted.

Maine joined the Tree Farm system in 1952 and now has 699 active Tree Farms totaling 1,991,750 acres.

BROWN COMPANY SHARES LISTED ON BIG BOARD OF NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Brown Company, a producer of pulp, paper, paperboard, converted products and plywood, was listed on the New York Exchange last Friday. The stock was assigned the ticker symbol BWN.

Frank T. Peterson, President and Chief Executive Officer purchased the first 100 shares of Brown Company stock in the first trade of the day recorded on the stock ticker tape. Daniel A. Porco, Chairman of the Board, Mr. Peterson, George D. Kennedy, Executive Vice President and Hugh D. Jordan, Vice President—Finance, were welcomed by Keith Funston, President of the New York Stock Exchange.

Brown Company listed 2,540,671 shares of common stock previously traded on the American Exchange. At the same time, 1,106,932 shares of a new Series A cumulative convertible preferred stock were listed.

At separate special meetings on Thursday, shareholders of Brown and KVP Sutherland voted approval of the merger of KVP Sutherland into Brown.

Following the merger, Brown has assets of about $180 million and sales of about $200 million. There are about 6,000 holders of Brown common stock and 8,000 preferred shareholders.

The Board of Directors was increased to 17 by the addition of Dwight L. Stocker; William J. Lawrence, Jr.; Harold Melius; Frank L. Mannheim; Dr. Maurice J. Day; and George D. Kennedy.

Also elected were Michele Sindona, sole owner of FASCO A. G. Italy and David Bellows, General partner of H. Hentz & Co. Mr. Stocker, formerly president of KVP Sutherland, will serve as a corporate officer of Brown.

Brown emerges as a company with a highly diversified line of pulp, paperboard, paper, paper towels, matches, plywood and other timber products.

Brown Company now owns, leases or manages 800,000 acres of timberland in New England and an additional 3,400,000 acres in Canada. The new company has 11,500 employees and operates 22 plants and mills in 10 states and the Dominion of Canada, and owns an interest in a British converting company with plants near London and in South Wales.

The corporate history of Brown goes back to 1888. KVP was founded in 1901, merging with Sutherland Paper Company in 1960.

Now— U. S. Savings Bonds Pay More Interest

4.15% when held to maturity

Higher interest on the Bonds you already own, too!

U. S. Savings Bonds are a better way to save than ever

Because now all Series E and Series H Bonds bought after December 1, 1965, will earn the new, higher interest rate of 4.15% when held to maturity. That's only 7 years for Series E—9 months quicker than before. All H Bond interest checks will be larger beginning in June 1966.

And your outstanding Bonds will earn more, too, from now on. So, you don't have to cash in your present Bonds to get the attractive new rate.

Ask about buying Bonds where you work or bank. For America's future. And yours.

"Today, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines."
 "Today, above all, is a time for all Americans to rededicate themselves to the spirit that animated the Millionaire of Concord—who served as a symbol of the Savings Bond program. For today, at the founding of our nation, it is freedom which is again at stake. That all of us are called upon to fight in the jungles of Vietnam, but while our men are there, in the front line of a distant land, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines. We must all do our share—in every way we can—in support of our men in Vietnam. One sure way to open to all Americans through the Savings Bond program."

Report to MAINE

Senator Z. McKinnon

I have watched closely the progress being made by proposals to establish a program of sea grant colleges. Recent hearings were gratifying because they showed that there is increasing support for the concept of sea grant colleges.

Such a program would build real opportunities for Maine. First, any of our colleges could initiate a graduate program in oceanography. Second, the technical know-how we would gain would directly benefit our fishing industry. In addition, the sea grant college program would build the promise of developing new industries to tap other resources of the ocean.

The purpose of the program is to accelerate the development of all the potential of the ocean. This means making valuable minerals and the development of power as well as improving fishing techniques.

In many ways, the program would parallel the land grant college act which has benefited all segments of our society since 1862.

In a sense, the sea grant program would produce county agents of the ocean.

The idea is to develop tech-

CUT WASTE AT HOME

— SAVE WATER, MONEY

Cut waste at home and you not only serve the cause of water conservation—but save money in the process.

According to the May issue of Changing Times, many areas will face water shortages this summer in spite of heavy winter and spring storms. The magazine lists these ways to save at least 350 gallons of water a week:

1. Instead of running the tap to let the water cool every time you want a drink, keep a pitcher of water in the refrigerator. Saving: 2-3 gallons daily.
2. Don't wash or rinse dishes in running water over an open drain. Turn water on to rinse, then shut it off. Saving: 10-15 gallons.
3. Use the automatic dishwasher only for full loads. Saving: 12-15 gallons.
4. Don't let the water run all the while you shave, brush your teeth or soap your hands. And don't run it till it's warm if you're going to wash your hands. Saving: 3-4 gallons.
5. If you're taking a shower, turn off water while lathering, then turn it on to rinse. Saving: 4-6 gallons.
6. If you have a "suds saver" on your automatic washer, use it. Saving: 15 gallons.
7. Repair leaky faucets. Save 4 gallons a day for each leak.
8. Use less water when you take a bath. Saving: 8-10 gallons.
9. Use a bucket of water to wash the car and a hose to rinse. Saving: 3-5 gallons.

S. & H. 1966 YEARBOOK INTRODUCED IN AREA

The 1966 edition of a perennial American household favorite—the S&H Green Stamp Yearbook was introduced May 12th at Bryant's IGA and Hathaway's and other S&H merchants in Bethel and Locke Mills area.

This edition marks the 70th anniversary of The Sperry and Hutchinson Company, nation's oldest and largest trading stamp firm, founded in 1896.

The 1966 edition, biggest of 103 pages and some 2,900 items, according to Norman E. Rochelle, there are 50 categories for stamp-savers to choose from. He revealed approximately 37 percent of the merchandise displayed in new this year.

Stamp-savers will find many items made by Maine manufacturers in the catalog including golf shoes and smoking stands, sheets and pillow cases.

The merchandise is available in 72 redemption centers in New England and in 767 throughout the nation.

ROADSIDE PICNIC AREAS TO BE OPEN THIS WEEK END

The State Highway Commission announces that its 200 roadside picnic areas have been spruced up and will be ready for another busy season beginning this week end.

The popular picnic sites have been developed for the convenience of the motorist in rural areas throughout the state at locations where cars may safely turn off the highway.

SHC maintenance crews have cleaned all the areas this spring and painted picnic tables, litter barrels, shelters, fireplaces and toilet buildings. New equipment has been installed at many of the sites to serve the increasing demand for picnicking facilities.

Beginning Saturday the brown and yellow PICNIC AREA signs will be in place inviting highway travelers in Maine to turn in and enjoy the accommodations prepared for their roadside picnic.

TV DRIVERS' TEST TO BE SCREENED MAY 24

Another CBS National Drivers' Test has been slated for the Tuesday preceding Memorial Day. According to the Maine Highway Safety Committee, a phenomenal 59 million people reportedly watched the nationally televised program last May 24.

This year's test will follow the same general format of the original telecast. However, to facilitate home scoring, all the answers will be in the true or false, and yes or no category.

Most safety experts expected the general public to score low in last year's traffic test. However, the results were far below what everyone had expected, and immediately prompted safety officials to launch all-out campaigns to make the motoring public aware of the situation.

"The fact of the matter is," said one Safety Committee spokesman, "most people simply do not know what is expected of them in today's traffic. And, with better than 60 accidents happening each day in Maine, the situation isn't getting any better."

The test will be viewed State-wide over WGAN-TV in Portland, WABI-TV in Bangor, and WAGM-TV in Presque Isle at 3p on the evening of Tuesday, May 24.

RISING TOLL OF LAWN MOWER INJURIES ALARMS MAKERS, SAFETY EXPERTS

With 24,000,000 power mowers in use today, and 4,500,000 new ones produced each year, mower manufacturers and safety experts have watched with alarm as the toll of injuries mounts. Reports Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine.

Safety officials estimate that from 35,000 to 80,000 people are injured each mowing season, and also nine out of ten mower injuries treated involved rotary models. According to Changing Times, many of these accidents are not serious. But many others result in the loss of toes, fingers, eye and occasional life.

The trend to bigger, heavier mowers, is one of the reasons for the rising number of accidents. The American Standards Association has set up safety and design standards which have been adopted by most manufacturers.

Over 85% of all mowers sold this season will carry the ASA seal. So, if you're in the market for a new mower, be sure it carries the ASA seal.

The editors of Changing Times list these rules which every mower operator should follow:

Know your machine. Read the owner's manual carefully and know how to stop the engine quickly in an emergency.

Before you start to mow, check the mower for cracks, loose nuts and bolts. Fill the gas tank before you start, not after the motor gets hot, and never while the motor is running.

Check the lawn for stones, sticks and other debris that could get hurled out of the mower.

Before you are ready to mow, clear the area of children, pets and other bystanders.

Before you start the motor, make sure all blade and drive clutches are disengaged. As you start the machine, keep your feet well away from the blades.

If you are called away from the machine, shut it off. Stop the engine before pushing the mower over walks and other nonlawn areas.

Never let a child or someone not thoroughly familiar with the machine mow your lawn, especially if your property is hilly or uneven.

On a slope mow sideways, never up and down. Never pull a running machine toward you.

Don't mow if the grass is wet. This is especially crucial with electric mowers.

As you turn a rotary mower, always make left hand turns (away from the direction in which the grass chute points). Never walk by a chute while the motor is running and never reach in with your hand or a stick to unclog grass while the motor is running.

If you have to work on the cutting blade, disconnect the spark plug. Merely shutting off the engine doesn't guarantee

NO FARM WORK FOR CHILDREN UNDER 16 DURING SCHOOL HOURS

Children under 16 years of age are not allowed to work on farms during school hours, according to a reminder issued by Stanley C. Wollaston, New England Regional Director of the U. S. Labor Department's Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

"Children should be in school, not working in the fields," Wollaston said. "Education pays off. Figures show that high school graduates earn well over one-third more than workers who never went beyond the eighth grade."

The 16-year age minimum for employment on farms is set by the Fair Labor Standards Act. It applies to work by both local and migrant youngsters in the school district where children live while employed. It does not apply to youngsters who work for their parents on home farms.

"Children who want to do farm work may be employed before or after school, and on week ends or holidays when classes are not in session," Wollaston said. "The 16-year age minimum set by the Federal law does not apply outside of school hours."

Wollaston added that if state or local laws set higher standards, the higher standards prevail.

If you have a riding mower, be especially careful on hills and never allow a passenger on board. These machines can and do tip over.

And lastly, pay attention to the job at hand. Perhaps the single greatest cause of accidents is the mental lapse that sends your thoughts wandering when you should be alert.

TWO MORE ON-THE-JOB TRAINING PROJECTS FOR MAINE

Two more on-the-job training projects for Maine communities under the Manpower Development and Training Act have been announced by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

The Great Northern Paper Company of Bangor will train 140 unemployed and underemployed persons for 40 weeks as woodmen. MDTA funds total $24,272.

In the other project, the Northwood Shoe Corp. of Presque Isle will train 40 persons for five weeks as shoemakers and hand sewers. MDTA funds total $5,952.

The jobs were developed with the employers by the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training. On-the-job training is given by private industry with Federal Government reimbursement for job instruction fees and instructional materials only.

Trainees receive wages paid by employers during the training period. About 94 percent of those completing programs have been hired by the employers who provided training.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS FERTILIZING OF SHADE TREES

Fertilizing is of prime importance in keeping your shade trees healthy, and rejuvenating weak trees. Fertilizing during the spring is highly recommended for the trees of Bethel, according to the Bethel Shade Tree Committee.

Many of the trees and maples are very old and need the added nutrients to make the trees grow vigorously. Many of the shade trees do not even have room to grow due to being surrounded by driveways and streets.

Some of the recommended fertilizers to use are 10-10-10, 10-6-4, 7-9-5, or 10-3-3. The first number denotes the nitrogen which influences the rate of growth of cells which produces healthy twigs, wood and foliage growth.

The second number denotes the phosphoric acid which influences root growth. The third number denotes potassium which helps in the formation and movement of starches and sugars and strengthens and toughens the tree.

Three pounds of fertilizer is recommended for large trees for each inch of diameter at breast height. For small trees, one to two pounds per inch of diameter is sufficient.

Holes should be punched in the soil with a crowbar three feet apart, starting 3-4 feet from the tree and extending just beyond the edge of the foliage. The holes should be 10-12" deep. The holes should be filled to within 2-3 inches of the top and then top the holes with soil, and then lightly step on the holes to close them. The tree should be watered heavily after feeding.

The Shade Tree Committee urges all persons to fertilize their shade trees this year.

SCHOOL REFERENDUM IS DISCUSSED AT TUESDAY MEETING

A discussion of school finance, and development plans highlighted a public meeting at Odson Hall Tuesday evening.

The session was the last in a series of public information meetings held in SAD 44 towns in preparation for voting May 19 on a $1,500,000 school bond issue referendum.

Supt. Horace P. Macey presided, with Bethel Directors Dexter M. Stowell, James Fiske, Theodore Chadbourne, and Roland Gilman, assisting in responding to the questions.

While brochures about the proposed school gave a gross financial picture, questions centered on the items constituting the costs.

The breakdown was given by Mr. Stowell: construction at $14 per square foot, $1,400,000; equipment, $180,000; architect's fee, (5 per cent), $75,000; contingency, $100,000, totalling, $1,855,000, for one building.

Roads and parking, $60,000; sewage disposal, $20,000; site cost, $10,000 (already paid); water service, $10,000; athletic fields and other outside work, $141,500, totalling $247,000, for a grand total, $2,102,000.

Concern was expressed on the "outside work" since the brochure contained a plot layout showing the full athletic landscaping plans of the architect.

Mr. Stowell outlined the costs of so-called standard schools planned at a rate of 16 square feet per pupil, at a cost of $2,100 per pupil. One of these, designed for a six year program would cost the five towns only $13,000 less over 25 years than the proposed school which allows an investment of $2,300 per pupil, and 143 square feet per pupil, he said.

A "standard" four-year school with same investment and area per child as the six-year standard would cost only $186,000 less over the 25 year period, Mr. Stowell added. One large factor in this is the plan to use the $400,000 Bingham Betterment Fund grant to keep the annual payments level by applying the grant payments toward interest.

The annual grant payments will be made according to a scale descending from $39,200 the first year, to $800 the 25th. The grant is applicable to the proposed plan only.
